Margaret
I hope the year after this is
best year of all for you,
but I'll have to wait 2 more years. from little Brother

Brad Wisnhoff

I hope you and
get bustedon
graduation night
1 year for you
2 year for me.

To Margaret,
Tenion on the sweetest singing
you always hit the right
note and always give dirty looks to the girls in front of us. Your a real sweet girl and your cool, and thats what counts. Hope we can sing in choir
together next year So we can made Mr.
Rein mad. Your friendly neighborhood

Margaret,

Boy I wish we didn't have to be Seniors! I am really ~~scared~~ scared about it. But since we are going to be Seniors, I wish you the best of luck in everything. Especially luck in staying out of trouble. But then we all need that kind of luck.

See you next year and again, Good Luck.

Margaret
Well there's not much left of this school year. Even though I'm really glad I'm not a Senior I might miss certain parts of it. I wish you a real neat personality with a great deal of luck in everything you do. Have the best of luck in your next year.

"71"
Always,
Linda D.

Margaret,
Hope you have a good year. In what ever you do.
Good Luck

SENIORS

THE TOP THREE

This year two girls—Elizabeth Morris and Marilyn Willson—tied for the valedictorian's position in the class. Both will give valedictory speeches at commencement exercises. Mical Coffield, close to the girls in grade point average, will be the salutatorian.

All three students found time for various extra-curricular activities as well as studies during their high school careers.

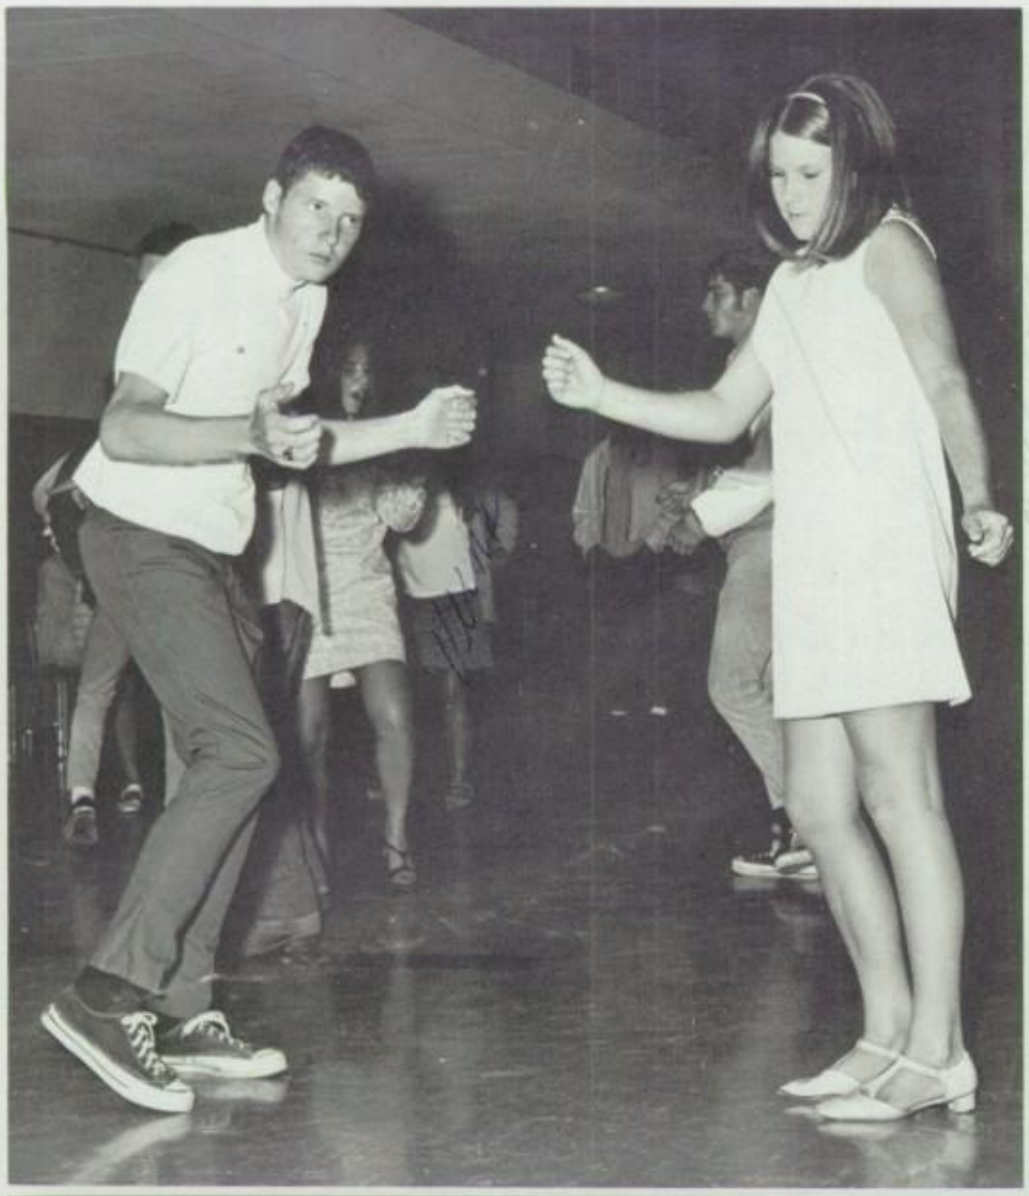
ACTIVITIES

For many students the lunch hour is the most popular period of the school day.

HERE

Masayo Kuraoka was chosen September girl of the month, "Miss Friendliness." Becky Bridgefarmer presented her with the locket, corsage, and scroll at the first pep assembly.

Freshmen are always initiated at the first pep assembly of the school year. Here, led by their president, Stuart Fridley, they prepare to sing the school song.



The first mixer of the school year was sponsored by the seniors to welcome the freshmen. Class advisors Mr. Mitchell and Mrs. Garner were chaperones.

Marilyn Willson Homecoming Queen

Marilyn Willson was crowned Queen of the 1969 homecoming festivities by A.S.B. president Mical Coffield. Mike presided as master of ceremonies at the rally held on October 30. Marilyn's escort was Phil Riches.

Princesses of the court and their escorts were Kim Johnson and Walt Fahlenkamp, Robyn Wilkins and Brent Palmer, Debbie White and Jim Mulrony, Jill Bridgefarmer and Charlie Hoctor.

Queen Marilyn knighted each member of the football team.

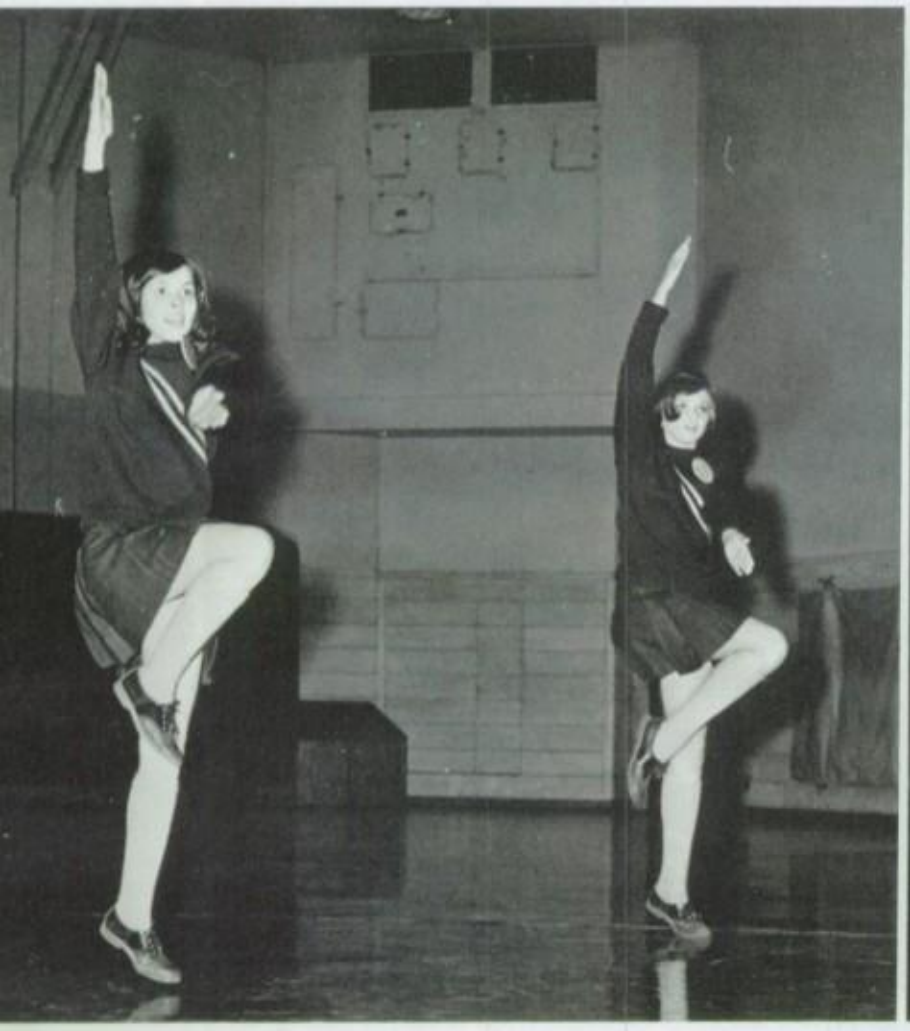
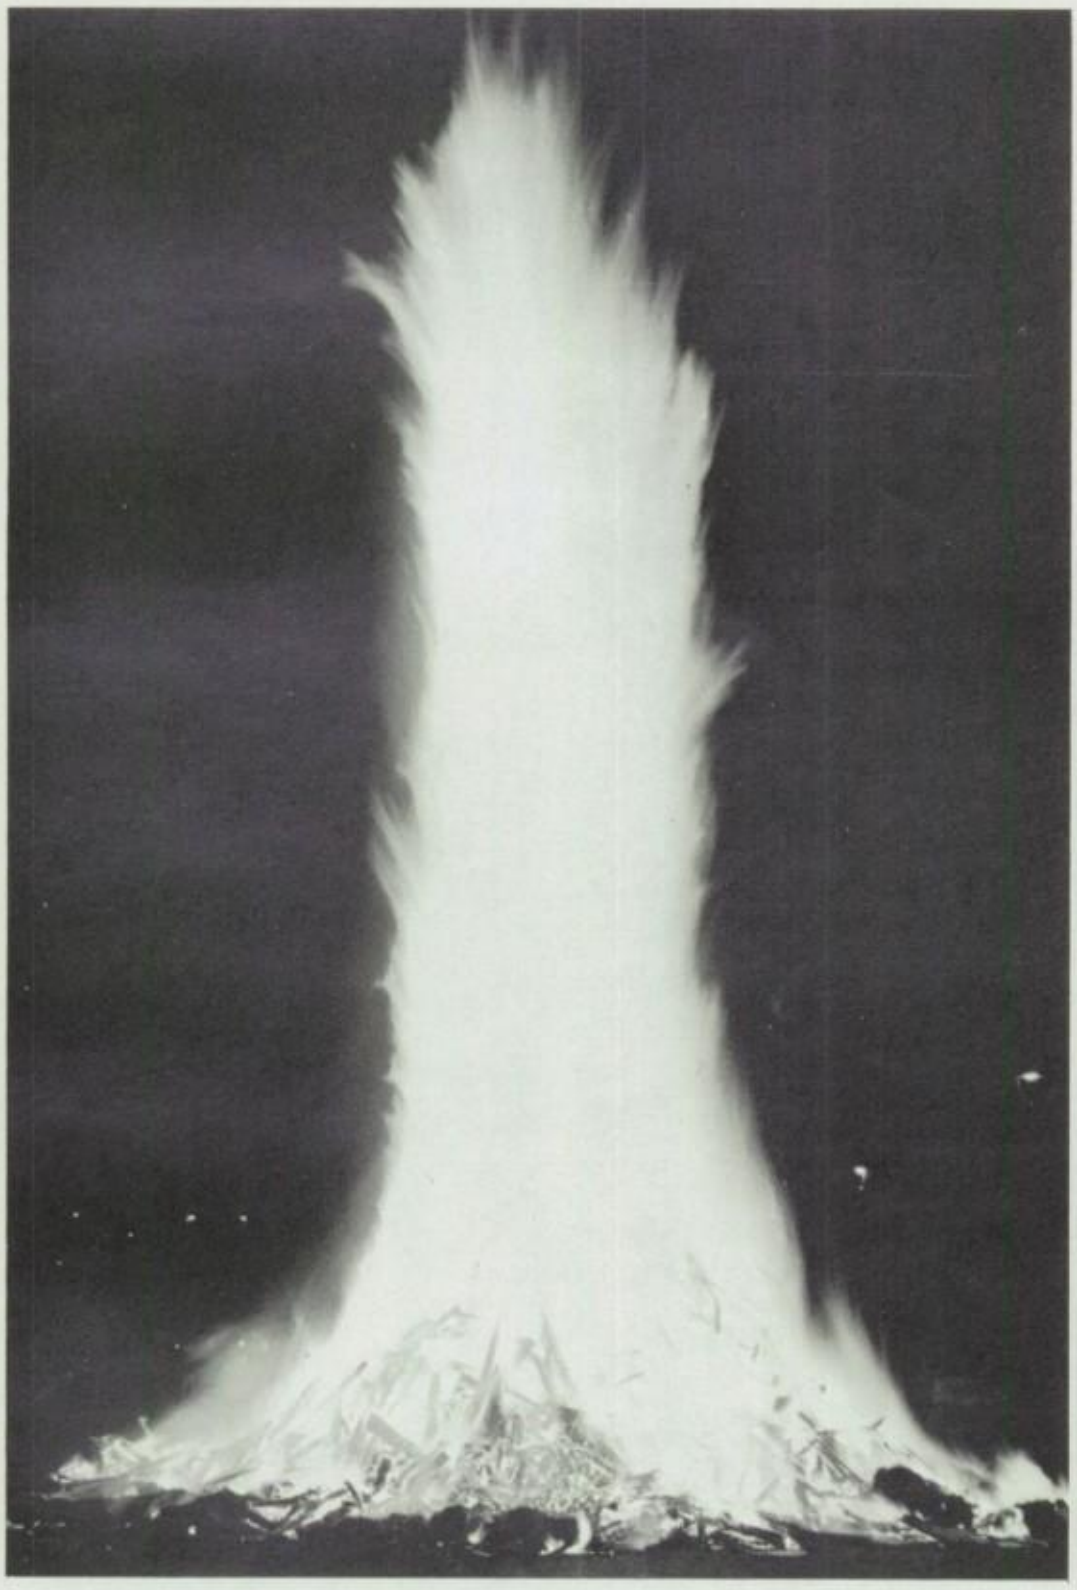
The homecoming rally always draws a big crowd. A faculty skit is a popular tradition for this event.





The pep rally at the bonfire is also an important part of the homecoming activities.

Kathy Hash, Betty Butler, Julie Jacobsen, Belinda Meyer, and Cindy Garner helped serve at the Girls' League fall party for the "little sisters."

Gladys Wesley, Sandy Pederson, and Liz Morris cook syrup at the taffy pull, while Judy Enyeart, Susan Wynhoff, Debbie Abbott, and Sue Woolley try their hand at pulling the taffy.

Texanna Thompson, John Garrett, Susan Brasmer, Judy Young, and Julie Jacobsen served at the French Club's pancake feed. Judy Thomson and Rick Anderson were cooks, while Teresa Fridley was cashier.

Bev Dow, Cindy Orcutt, and Sherry Richardson were among the customers; Betty Butler waited on tables.

AH, FOOD!

Seniors sponsored a spaghetti feed on January 30. Among servers were Gladys Wesley, Margie Schelhorn, and Janice George. Masayo Kuraoka was one of the customers.

Darrell Hazelwood was cashier for the affair.

Senior boys were the first customers.

Becky Goddard and Nancy Cline presided at the home-coming tea table. Mrs. Davenport supervised.

French Club members Teresa Fridley and Kay Overly sell goodies to Mrs. Randall

The freshmen gave a dime-a-dip dinner on February 6. Servers shown are Jan Woodward, Pam Gray, Barbara Carr, Lori Case, and Carrie Schuster.

SCENES FROM THE PLAY

Twirp Week netted $170, to be used to help the foreign exchange student program. A pie eating contest, "slave" auction, and tricycle race (won by Miss Braden) provided plenty of fun and laughter for the spectators.

Here Bruce Enyeart auctions off Connie Davenport.

Sharla Niemela, Sherry Richardson, and Masayo Kuraoka were initiated into the National Honor Society spring semester. Sherry was also the local winner of the Betty Crocker American Homemaker of Tomorrow award.

The stage band performed at a public concert as well as before many smaller groups. Here the members play at the FTA banquet.

This year the students and faculty of GHS presented a Curriculum Fair to show the community what was being done at school.

Jan Woodward and Laurie Case served coffee while Jerry Weddle and Arnold Wright took care of the films shown in the library.

Cindy Woody told about the jewelry work done in the crafts class.

Larry Jackson worked at the lathe while Harlan Carr explained about turning wood on the lathe.

Extra-curricular activities were also represented by displays at the Curriculum Fair.

Freshman girls entertained their mothers at the sleepwear parade and tea.

AND IN THE CLASSROOMS . . .

Debbie White, Ruth Warrener,and Sue Williams learn to use the calculators and adding machine in office machines class.

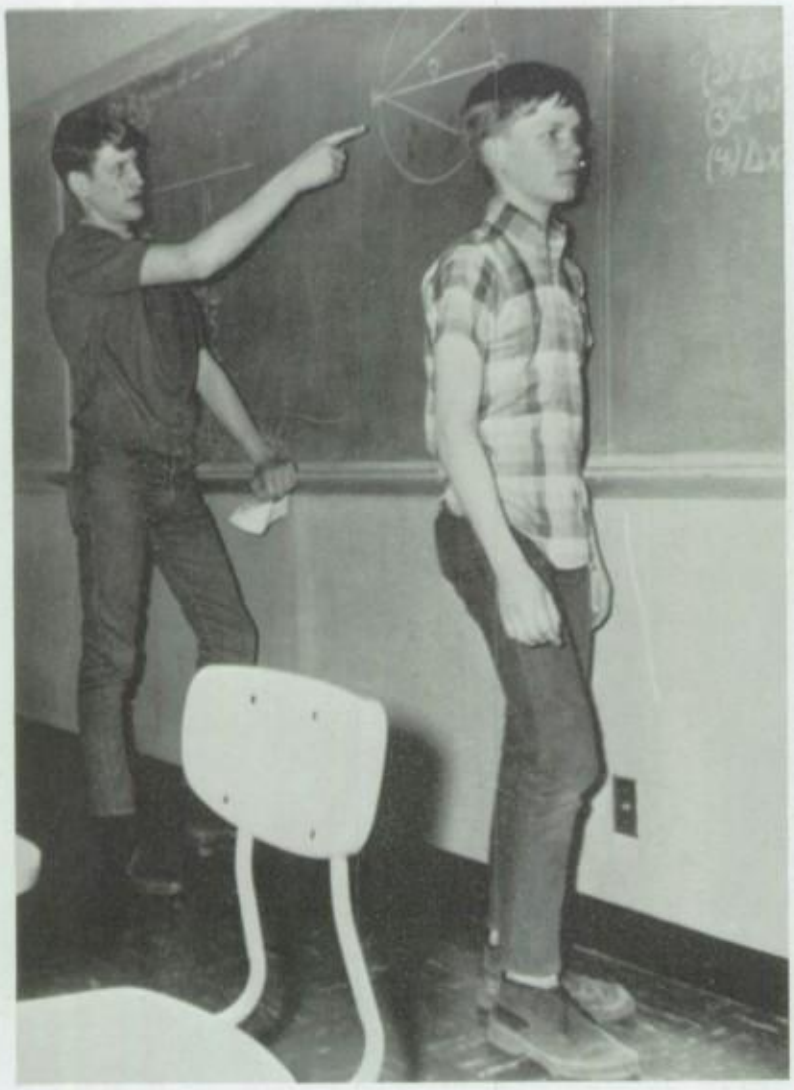
Nancy Cline and Karen Sybouts work on their filing practice sets in the same class.

Students in Typing I find that it takes a great deal of practice to learn the keyboard.

In art class Thurman Riley, Debbie White, and Rod Van Matre make block prints; Jerry Weddle, Arnold Wright, and David Montanye work with water colors.

Donita McCardell, Sharla Niemela, and Charlotte Froehlich plot an ad in D.E. Class.

Lily Harmon, Renee Barrett, and Bettena Meyer cook potato soup in Home Ec I class.



Mike Johnson and Darrel Hilman demonstrate geometry proofs.

Jim and Everett Mulrony raised 200 chickens as their Ag project.

Larry Riches does some acetylene welding in Ag III; Steve Reed looks on.

Everett Mulrony does some metal cutting with the Oxy-acetylene torch in Ag III.
